ORDER NO. 72

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

[Amending Procedures for Motions to Dismiss and Motions to Vacate Dismissal
Brought Pursuant to Order Nos. 25 and 45]

In order to streamline the Court’s procedures for adjudicating motions to dismiss brought by New GM pursuant to Order Nos. 25 (14-MD-2543 Docket No. 422) and 45 (14-MD-2543 Docket No. 758), both Orders are AMENDED to add the following provisions:

1. If any Plaintiff files a response to a motion to dismiss his or her claims without prejudice pursuant to the terms of either Order (Order No. 25 ¶ 24; Order No. 45 ¶ 3), New GM shall file a reply, no later than seven days following the deadline for objections to New GM’s motion, indicating which Plaintiffs’ claims (if any) it still moves to dismiss.

2. If any Plaintiff files a motion to vacate the dismissal of his or her claims (Order No. 25 ¶ 25; Order No. 45 ¶ 4), New GM shall file a consolidated opposition to any motions arising out of the same dismissal without prejudice two weeks after those plaintiffs’ deadline for submitting such motions (thirty days after the Court granted the motion to dismiss). Each Plaintiff’s reply, if any, shall be due one week thereafter. If the Court denies any Plaintiff’s motion, New GM may move for dismissal with prejudice at any point thereafter.

3. If New GM files a motion to dismiss with prejudice (Order No. 25 ¶ 25; Order No. 45 ¶ 4), any opposition shall be filed two weeks after the motion's filing. New GM's reply, if any, shall be filed one week thereafter.

4. Counsel is advised to file all documents related to motions to dismiss pursuant to Order Nos. 25 and 45 in 14-MD-2543 and to "spread" the filings to any relevant individual member case or cases.

5. Finally, in bringing any future motions to dismiss pursuant to Order Nos. 25 or 45, and in order to ensure that counsel in member cases are adequately advised of these amendments, New GM shall include a reference to this Order.

SO ORDERED.
